Schedule

9:30-9:45 am Great Hall, 2nd floor

Browse the vendors in the Great Hall.

9:45-10:00 am History Reference Room, 2nd floor

Opening remarks, Sally Otte, Indiana State Library Foundation and Jacob Speer, State Librarian.

10:00-11:00 am History Reference Room, 2nd floor

Keven McQueen

Explore historical true crime in Indiana through stories of murder and mayhem from McQueen's books.

11:00-1:00 pm Lunch

See program insert for more information.

1:00-2:00 pm History Reference Room, 2nd floor

Judy Russell, Rogues, Rascals, and Rascallions: The Family Black Sheep

Playing detective in court records can unmask those black sheep every family has, and it's fun! Learn to understand the criminal process in both federal and state courts and how to find the records to put meat on the bones of the skeletons in your family's closet.

2:00-3:00 pm Break

Raffle will be held at 2:30 pm in the History Reference Room.

Must be present to win. Also feel free to browse the vendors in the Great Hall.

3:00-4:00 pm History Reference Room, 2nd floor

Judy Russell, Doing Time: Prison Records as Genealogy Resources

The brick walls of a family tree are no match for prison walls. From intake photo to receipts for cash and clothes when they were released, prisoners in jails and prisons were recorded and documented, often in stunning detail. Learn what records may exist, and where, about your family's black sheep.

About the Speakers

Keven McQueen is a professor in the English Department at Eastern Kentucky University and the author of 14 books on American history, biography, folklore, ghost lore, and historical true crime.

Judy Russell is a former journalist and attorney and the author of the Legal Genealogist blog. She writes about genealogy and the law and using court, prison, and other legal records in genealogy research.

Announcements

Restrooms are located on the west end of the building, through the Great Hall, Browsing Collection, and Manuscripts Reading Room.

Please do not take food or drink out of the Fair area and into other parts of the Library.

The Indiana Historical Bureau Bookshop on the 1st floor will be open from 9:30 am to 3:00 pm. Fair attendees will receive 20% off all purchases. The shop features books on Indiana history and other Hoosier interest topics, as well as many Hoosier-made goods.

Please visit the Book Giveaway on the 1st floor. There is no charge for books, but donations may be made to the Indiana State Library Foundation at the Circulation Desk.

Join us next year for the 2016 Genealogy & Local History Fair: "200 Years of My Indiana Home" celebrating the Indiana Bicentennial and the lives and homes of our Hoosier ancestors.

October 22, 2016 at the Indiana State Library.
